FISCAL COURT MEETING - JUDGE TURNER LOOKS BACK AT PREVIOUS BUDGET WITH RAGE

Owsley County Fiscal Court met at their regular time on February 9, 2015 with the following officials present: magistrates Tim Bishop, Mike Thomas and Zeke Little, Jr; Judge Cale Turner, Lucy Burrows, Waste Management; Ivan Fletcher, Chief Deputy; Mildred Hudson, County Treasurer; James P. McClintosh, Road Foreman; and Cody Campbell, County Secretary.

Treasurers report was made by Mildred Hudson. As of January 30, 2015 by bank reconciliation: general fund: $122,147.71; Checking account debit - $3098.60; Checking account credit - $37,980.58; Check book balance - $87,465.73.

Judge Turner stated that there were about $25,000 in CD's in the general fund and stated that $50,000 would be transferred out of the road fund into the general fund and it wasn't too pretty, but "it is what it is!" Going on with the treasurer report: as of January 30, 2015 (Continued to Page 6)

Largest Snow in Several Decades

The foot of snow that hit the ground on Sunday night halted the rest of the businesses in Booneville from being opened that weren't already closed for Presidents Day. Some businesses, like the drug stores were opened for a couple of hours in the morning on Monday but for the most part, Booneville was shut down. Tuesday, there were more businesses open, but still Booneville looked like a ghost town.

On Tuesday, Judge Cale Turner and the magistrates worked with the county workers to try to clean out county roads while Sheriff Kelly Shouse and his staff delivered groceries and prescriptions.

The main roads look good but for Kentucky again tonight (Tuesday) we are predicted to be hit again with 2-4 more inches of snow along with below 0 degree temperatures for the next couple of days. May be springtime before eastern KY thaws out! But as they say, a countryboy can survive!

Local circuit court judge participates in 2015 Circuit Judges College in Louisville

FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 10, 2015 – Circuit Court Judge Michael Dean, who serves Owsley, Lee and Estill counties, participated in the 2015 Circuit Judges Winter College that took place Jan. 25-28 in Louisville. The Administrative Office of the Courts provided the education program for the state's circuit judges.

The judges attended courses on domestic violence, science and the law, computer forensics in court, alternative ways to resolve disputes in cases, personal jurisdiction, judicial writing for trial judges, evolving areas of law and recently published cases, and court technology, including eFiling. With eFiling, attorneys can file cases electronically. The program is now available in 26 Kentucky counties and will be in every county in the state by the end

eFiling is going to cut down on the time and money it takes to get to a courthouse to file case documents and attorneys can log on anytime of the day or night," said Jefferson Family Court Judge Stephen M. George, president of the Kentucky Circuit Judges Association. "With clicks of a mouse, attorneys will be able to more efficiently access justice for the people they represent."

"Also, this college was the first for our new circuit judges who took office Jan. 5, so it was a perfect time to welcome them and for the new judges and more experienced judges to discuss a variety of judicial topics."

In addition to general sessions, the college offered separate courses for circuit judges with general jurisdiction and those who oversee Family Court cases.

Circuit judges with general jurisdiction had the opportunity to attend courses on scientific evidence and expert testimony, juror selection, property boundary (Continued to page 4)

KY 30 in Breathitt County reduced to one lane for next five months

Traffic controlled by temporary signals in connection with replacement of Old Buck Bridge; Old Buck Road also affected

JACKSON, KY – Traffic on KY 30 near milepoint 5.1 in Breathitt County has been reduced to one lane at the Old Buck Road intersection and will be controlled by temporary traffic signals for approximately five months.

The lane closure is necessary for a bridge replacement project on KY 30. The truss bridge over the Middle Fork of the Kentucky River, known locally as the Old Buck Bridge, is being replaced with a modern span.

In addition, traffic on Old Buck Road at the KY 30 intersection will also be controlled by a temporary signal.

A one-lane setup with temporary signals is already in place on KY 3237 (Canoe Road) in this vicinity because of the construction project.

Drivers should slow down as they approach this construction zone, watch for stopped traffic and obey the temporary traffic signal. Motorists are asked to be aware of workers, traffic control devices and construction equipment when traveling in this and other areas where projects are ongoing.

Clarence watched as Liza Jane concentrated on hulling the walnuts. She had been an outdoor girl since she was a young child and it made him happy to see her enjoying the simple task of shelling walnuts. He had tried his best to spend time with his daughters. He played with them and taught them about life. He remembered the time when his family had gone to the woods behind their house to collect walnuts. The farmer who owned the land bordered by Clarence's property had given his permission for Clarence to hunt on the land behind his house. There was a mature walnut tree that was heavy laden with walnuts each fall. It was an autumn tradition for the family to pack their lunches and gather the walnuts. Emma and Lorene had been collecting walnuts and Clarence didn't see Liza anywhere. When he was about to ask Lorene where their youngest daughter was, he saw Liza high up in the walnut tree sitting on a branch eating her sandwich. Clarence was forty at the time, but he had an urge to climb the tree and join Liza. He had not climbed a tree since he was a teenager and could tell he had aged some as he worked his way up the tree. Everyone stopped what they were doing and watched to see if Clarence could still climb a tree. He found to his satisfaction that he was able to climb the tree without an incident. He sat on the same branch as Liza and looked out around the fields and saw their house way off in the distance. Liza and Clarence talked for a long time until Liza decided she was missing out on picking up walnuts. Clarence stayed in the tree until he was ready to descend. He had spent many hours climbing trees with his brother Will. Some of his fondest memories were of the conversations he had with his older brother up in a tree back in the woods where they grew up. He remembered Will declaring when he was a teenager, that when he was a man that he would be volunteering to go into the Army. Only a few short years after making that statement, Will had been drafted to serve in World War II. Clarence was drafted two years after Will left to fight for his country. He could still recall the peaceful feeling while sitting high up in a tree above the ground. Clarence had volunteered to climb a tree in Germany to be a lookout person to see if there was a German tank coming toward his unit. He wondered if there was a German soldier sitting up in a tree looking back at him at the same time. Clarence was in awe of the fact that he was so far away from home and was climbing a tree in another country and their trees were just like the ones he had around his home in America.

FISCAL COURT MEETING

Road fund - $333,162.68; Jail fund -$27430.53; LGEA - $33,137.10; Solid Waste - $33,398.76; Parks & Recreation - $2041.65; LGEEF - $39,772.97; USDA - $0.

Judge Turner went on to do a comparison from June 10, 2010 to June 2014. He stated that the auditors were working on an audit now. Judge Turner went on tell about the budget as of June 2010 and as of June 2014 from the general fund through all of the budgets. He went on to talk about mistakes that the previous administration and employees had made. Judge Turner said "I am getting criticized on the streets because she is no longer employed. As far as I'm concerned, let the criticism continue."

"Another think I found," Judge Turner said "For some reason or another they started paying the Sheriff $700 every month, why is absolutely amazing to me." He also stated that if he transports a state inmate the state will pay him, if he transports a county inmate that is part of his job. Judge Turner stated that Mildred called him and said the sheriff's secretary was there to pick up his check. Judge Turner stated he said to Mildred I cannot see for the life of me why the county government would be paying the sheriff this fee but if it was in the budget we would have to pay it.

Craig Lindon, KY Department of Transportation - District 10. Rural Secondary Recommendations. Mr. Lindon talked about the 80/20 Flex Bridge Money or Drainage Structures. He stated that the fiscal court could have $100,000 per year to use on drainage structures. It is a 80/20 match. The only think you cannot use in the match is the employees salaries. Any equipment used or any materials purchased can be used as your match toward that project. Any materials purchased or any equipment used in the previous fiscal year can be used so you will get $200,000 to use. Mr. Lindon went over the 2015-2016 Allotments $848,048.00; County Judge Executive Fund $3,862.00; Maintenance/Traffic $354,429.00; County Road Allotment $157,524.00 left a balance of $332,223.00

Recommends the following roads: KY 2024 Sebastian-Booneville-Bear Run Road Iron Hill Cemetery-Brown Gabbard Road (mile marker 1.343) Junction Grassy Branch Road (mile marker 2.642) at a cost of $124,101.00; KY 1411 Booneville-Stay Road Just South Junction Straight Fork-Zeke Branch Road (mile marker 1.960) Owsley/Lee County Line (mile marker 1.960) Owsley/Lee County Line (mile marker 3.464) at a cost of $136,262.00; KY 1938 Turin-Travelers Rest Road. Junction KY 847 (mile marker 0.000) to Junction KY 11 (mile marker 2.481) at a cost of $222,619.00. for a total of 5.282 miles and a total cost of $482,982.00. Magistrate Mike Thomas recommended that before they worked on a road they replaced the drainage structures first. He stated that right after they blacktopped 2024 they went in right behind and sawed through and replaced a culvert. A motion was made by Zeke Little, Jr. seconded by Tim Bishop, motion carried.

Judge Turner stated that he had sent in the Tobacco Ordinance to the Booneville Sentinel by fax but it didn't make the paper and we may have to do a special fiscal court meeting for the 1st reading and do the 2nd reading at the regular fiscal court meeting.

Judge Turner stated that Lisa Bowen, who works for Joey Minter, veterinarian would write a grant to get money for a spaying and neutering. She stated she would write the grant for free. A motion was made by Zeke Little, Jr. seconded by Mike Thomas, motion carried.

Judge Turner asked the fiscal court to allow qualified electricians to be Open electrical inspections. A motion was made by Zeke Little, Jr., seconded by Mike Thomas, motion carried.

Lucy Burrows, Solid Waste Coordinator discussed the outstanding garbage bills and ordinance 52799. She went over the ordinance and stated that they didn't need anything else passed. She stated the fiscal court needed to appoint members to the board so they could get started working on the outstanding garbage bills. She also stated that whatever the board members passed they needed to come in front of the fiscal court and they needed to look over their recommendations and approve them. Mrs. Burrows wanted them to take the document with them and look over it and talk about it at the next meeting.

Judge Turner stated there was $86,715.00 put into the fund for the Recreation Building. He stated he had talked to Carolyn Howard at the KRADD board. The fiscal court needed to come up with three scenarios on how they will would get the building open and they could get the $100,000 back.

Road Foreman Report – Foreman McIntosh ask them if they had any questions. Judge

Turner stated that they had been working on a lot of machines. He stated the small compactor would have to be taken to a dealer to be worked on. Magistrate Little asked about the pothole machine and if it was going to be used. He stated he had never seen it been used and wanted to know if anyone else had seen it being used. He also asked if anyone knew how to use it. Judge Turner stated it would be used. Judge Turner stated blacktop is $90 a ton. Magistrate Little asked if they would be blacktopping potholes instead of putting gravels in them. Judge Turner said yes, that is a waste of time putting gravels in them, and it is actually dangerous.

Magistrate Thomas stated he had a suggestion. They needed handicapped parking around the courthouse. Judge Turner stated the sign got knocked down when they redid the sidewalks and didn't get put back up. Magistrate Thomas stated he never saw a sign. Judge Turner stated that it needed to be stripped off in two areas for handicapped.

Judge Turner jumped straight into Partnership Housing. Cassie Hudson, executive director of Partnership Housing, she stated that she had received another $500,000 CDBG grant for property on 1938 that will be called Milltown Subdivision for 11 homes. After the purchase we have to do the infrastructure: the sidewalks, the lights, the city water, sewer, blacktop, etc. She stated that Partnership Housing had also applied for a $130,000 grant for duplexes to build across from the City of Booneville offices that will have 4 units for the elderly. She explained that she was there to ask the fiscal court to approve a matching fund of $3000 for this grant. She explained the previous fiscal court had approved the matched fund of $3000 pending this fiscal courts approval. A motion was made by Zeke Little, seconded by Mike Thomas, motion granted.

Judge Turner asked the fiscal court to allow the treasurer to make transfers as need from one code to another in the same fund. A motion was made by Mike Thomas, seconded by Tim Bishop, motion carried.

When the magistrates were going over the bills, Mike Thomas ask about Breathitt Mechanical. Judge Turner stated that we had a problem in the bathroom and we called them. Magistrate Thomas stated they are high and stated isn't this something we can put out for bids. Judge Turner stated it was something that come up and we had to call something. Magistrate Turner said to run it in the paper for bids. Judge Turner said when you have something come up you have to take care of it then but I agree you need to bid everything out that you can. A motion was made by Zeke Little, Jr. seconded by Tim Bishop to pay the bills, motion carried.

Judge Turner ask Craig Lindon to fax him a copy of the weight limits on the bridges in Owsley County.

Zeke Little, Jr. stated that Larry Cornett had asked about closing the road where he owns at the. Lucy Burrows stated that his sister Helen was back and owned some property back there. Judge Turner stated that he had received a letter back before from her and she was extremely upset and didn't want it closed and Jimmy Herald used it sometimes. But if it something we want to do, we would have to advertise it in the paper and to give people a chance to discuss it.

Another good piece of news that Judge Turner found out that a bill that they were trying to negotiate a bill they found out. If a inmate is in the hospital for two days, medicaid will pick up the bill if the paperwork is filled out. That will save us some money.

The fiscal court adjourned one hour and fifty one minutes later by a motion by Zeke Little, Jr. seconded by Mike Turner.

If you would like to watch the fiscal court meetings, they are taped by channel 9 on PRTC Cable. A schedule has not been given to the Booneville Sentinel of the times they are aired but they are aired several times per month.
